- B. Explain the meaning of "the white vapour-walled landscape"
- C. How do you undersdand "the delicious repose of the soul on a complete superior"?
- 43. "It was you that broke the new wood,

Now is a time for carving.

We have one sap and one root—

Let there be commerce between us."

Questions:

A. Whom does the "us" refer to?

- B. What does the phrase "broke the new wood" mean here?
- C. What is the intention of the poet in writing the poem "A Pact" from which these lines are taken?
- 44. "There was music from my neighbor's house through the summer nights. In his blue gardens men and girls came and went like moths among the whisperings and the champagne and the stars. At high tide in the afternoon I watched his guests diving from the tower of his raft, or taking the sun on the hot sand of his beach while his two motor—boats slit the waters of the Sound, drawing aquaplanes over cataracts of foam. On week—ends his Rolls—Royce became an omnibus, bearing parties to and from the city between nine in the morning and long past midnight, while his station wagon scampered like a brisk yellow bug to meet all trains. And on Mondays eight servants, including an extra gardener, toiled all day with mops and scrubbing—brushes and hammers and garden—shears, repairing the ravages of the night before."
